
Education

- MBA with business strategy emphasis
- Bachelor degree - Systems Engineering

Global Certifications

- PMP certified professional
- Oracle/Sun Enterprise Architecture Certification for Java
- Oracle/Sun Certified Web Component Developer for Java
- IBM WebSphere Administration

Pedro Rozo is a 100% Bilingual Professional (Spanish and English) with an ideal balance of executive and technical strengths, in his more than 20+ years of IT leadership experience he has practiced effectively as Senior Consultant in Software Architecture, Project Management, technical leader, Large Scale Open Source IT solutions architect, coach and Technical director of IT innovation centers.

He is Colombian & Canadian, he has led high complexity projects with geographically dispersed equipment in different countries such as: United Kingdom, Canada, Spain, India, Russia, Israel, Philippines, U.S.A, Ivory Coast, Kenia, Ecuador & Panama. He is expert in business transformation using complex IT solutions and projects in industries such as Healthcare, Retail, Telecommunications, Services, Agro, Banking and Insurance using robust IBM, Oracle, HP and open source solutions.

As IT leader with extensive technical and executive experience, plus his deep knowledge of the North American and South American markets in terms of business culture, technology adoption and strategic consulting in information technologies, he is currently leading strategic areas of innovation, management, architecture, integration and Open source solutions adoption (including Idempiere ERP, Apache Kafka, OpenJFX, Dart/Flutter, WSO2 middleware and multiple advanced open source business plug-ins such as: SmartPOS (retail), SmartVehicles (transportation), SmartSalud (healthcare) and SmartAgro (Agriculture) applying global standards and best practices for clients in markets such as Canada, United States, United Kingdom, Spain, Ivory Coast, Kenya, Cameroon, Panama, Chile, Ecuador and Colombia.

Teacher and Speaker

University graduate professor for the District University of Bogotá and the Technological University of Panama, he also led the implementation of technological solutions at the Jorge Tadeo Lozano University for administrative specialization programs for professionals in the Agro & Livestock sector. He is a specialized instructor for technical and executive courses in Large Scale IT Solutions using Open Source, Digital Transformation, Service Oriented Architectures, also using and integrating the Oracle and IBM IT portfolios; expert speaker on issues of technological innovation, integration, best practices, quality and large scale open source solutions with high quality at universities, software factories and centers of technological innovation in Canada, Colombia, Panama, Chile, Europe and Africa.

Memberships.

- IT Cluster of Bogotá, Colombia - Member of executive committee